DAY 3 ~ MONDAY ~ MAY 29

LIMA/CUSCO/SACRED VALLEY/URUBAMBA

Board your flight to the ancient Incan capital, Cusco. The Sacred Valley of the Incas lies below the ancient and sacred city of Machu Picchu. Formed by the Urubamba River, the valley was of particular interest to the Incas due to the special geographic as well as climatic qualities that this land possessed. The area was particularly important for the growth and production of 'Maize' and quickly became an agricultural hot spot for Peru.

Today we have a special treat in store for you. You will have the opportunity to receive a private weaving lesson from one of the world's top weavers, Ms. Nilda Callañaupa. A child of Chinchero, Nilda has been involved with weaving with the natural fibers of the Andean highlands since she was five years old. Nilda is a now master Andean weaver and is dedicated to preserving the textile heritage of her ancestors. She was recognized as a prodigy as a young child, and by the time she was 14 years old, she was giving weaving demonstrations at the Smithsonian Institution and the American Museum of Natural History. Enjoy a typical lunch, hosted by Nilda.

Your accommodations for the next two nights will be at the Casa Andina Private Collection Sacred Valley, which is strategically located on seven acres in the heart of the Sacred Valley of the Incas, just six miles from Ollantaytambo train station. The hotel is closer from Machu Picchu than Cusco City, as well as from the most important archaeological sites, such as Ollantaytambo, Pisac, Chincheros, Moray, Maras and more. Casa Andina Hotel at Urubamba is surrounded by gardens and has 92 entirely equipped guest rooms that open to balconies. Guest rooms provide complimentary wireless Internet access, direct-dial phones, and in-room safes. The hotel has a full-service spa, steam room, sauna, and fitness facility.

Overnight at CASA ANDINA SACRED VALLEY or similar. (B,L)www.casa-andina.com

DAY 4 ~ TUESDAY ~ MAY 30

URUBAMBA/CUYUNI

After breakfast embark on a full day adventure to the Cuyuni indigenous, bio-cultural legacy area. It will feel as though you have traveled back in time, as the native Cuyuni people have been living almost the same way for centuries. At an altitude of over 13,000 feet above sea level, only wild grass grows naturally, and has made growing conditions quite adverse however the natives have managed to thrive. The community leaders will join the group as you will learn about their daily lives and activities as well as their ancestral traditions that date back to pre-Inca times.

Overnight at CASA ANDINA SACRED VALLEY or similar. (B,L)

DAY 5 ~ WEDNESDAY ~ MAY 31
MACHU PICCHU

Today you depart on one of South America's most scenic rail trips from Ollanta Station to the legendary "Lost City of the Incas," Machu Picchu. Your one and a half hour rail journey is filled with breathtaking sights en route to this mountain-top sanctuary of the Incas which was hidden from the world until 1911 when Yale archaeologist Hiram Bingham rediscovered it. Machu Picchu straddles a high ridge, with sheer cliffs on three sides, and the Urubamba River curves around it and fills the canyon with its roar. In all directions, there are the Andean peaks covered in jungle green, a spectacular setting for these ancient ruins. There are temples, houses, terraces for growing crops that could be functional today, gardens, and a sacrificial altar. No one knows what happened to this civilization and why this city mysteriously disappeared, adding to the allure and spirituality of this incredible World Heritage site. Delve into a delicious buffet lunch at the Sanctuary Lodge before heading to your hotel.

Just a few minutes' walk from the train, El Mapi Hotel boasts a contemporary and stylish eco-friendly atmosphere that will allow you to relax and take in the rich culture of Peru and is right in the heart of the town of Aguas Calientes with many shops and restaurants right at your fingertips. The outdoor heated pool which is surrounded by illustrious and exotic gardens is a must for weary travelers who want to collect themselves in a serene atmosphere. Overnight at EL MAPI HOTEL. www.elmapihotel.com (B,L,D)

DAY 6 ~ THURSDAY ~ JUNE 1
MACHU PICCHU/CUSCO

Take in the sights and sounds, enjoy a free morning to explore this mysterious land and relish the rich Incan culture that is 'Machu Picchu'. In the afternoon, you will be returning to Cusco via rail, which takes approximately three and a half hours.

Spend the next two nights at the charming 'Casa Andina Classic Cusco Plaza', a beautiful 4 stories building with 38 elegant and comfortable rooms. The hotel is located under the arches of old colonial Exhilaration square and just a few steps from the famous Plaza of Arms, as well as a very short distance from Cusco Cathedral, and Museum of Popular Art. The interior of the hotel features a mix of South American architecture with just a few touches of European style that will make you feel like home. Your traditional room is very spacious, with a queen or two twin beds, decorated with wonderful Peruvian arts. Overnight at CASA ANDINA CLASSIC CUSCO PLAZA or similar. www.casa-andina.com (B)

DAY 7 ~ FRIDAY ~ JUNE 2

CUSCO

This morning you will enjoy a guided tour of Cusco. Visit the impressive Colonial Cathedral in Cusco that contains over 400 paintings from the Cusqueña School, beautiful cedar wood carvings such as the choir and the Pulpit, as well as some objects made of silver. Continue to Korikancha (Sun Temple), known today as Santo Domingo Church. During the Incas period, the stones of this temple were covered with gold.

Your city tour ends with your visit to the gigantic Inca fortress of Sacsayhuamán. The Incas told the Spaniards that they weren't the ones who built Sacsayhuamán, but "the giants" built it. In their mythology there were huge people living in the Cuzco area, and they carried the huge stone blocks and put them together. The city of Cuzco was built in the shape of a puma, a holy animal in the Inca beliefs. The head of the puma was actually Sacsayhuamán. Sacsayhuamán was a massive fortress of the Incas capable of accommodating 5,000 fighters. Today the complex is in ruins, but we know from chronicles and word-of-mouth from local Quechuans that it was once bigger, higher, and it even had towers. Your afternoon is at leisure. Overnight at CASA ANDINA CLASSIC CUSCO PLAZA or similar. (B,D)

OPTIONAL POST-TRIP EXTENSION TO TAMBOPATA, AMAZON BASIN

DAY 8 ~ SATURDAY ~ JUNE 3 LIMA/PUERTO MALDONADO/TAMBOPATA

This morning bid farewell to the rest of the group returning to the U.S. and transfer to the airport for your flight to Puerto Maldonado, situated at the confluence of the mighty Madre de Dios and Tambopata Rivers. This bustling, booming tropical frontier town's principal activities are gold mining, Brazil nut collecting, timber extraction, agriculture and ecotourism. After a brief survey of the town, depart on the 45-minute boat trip by motorized canoe to Reserva Amazonica. During your voyage, you may see bird species typical of the river or forest edge such as: Black Skimmer, Pied Lapwing, Capped Heron, Jabiru Stork, Roadside Hawk, and several species of kingfishers, swallows and flycatchers.

After a short briefing, settle into your beautiful cabaña and enjoy your lunch in the dining room. Take a siesta, share a refreshing tea time and get ready for the afternoon excursion.

Enjoy a guided walk along one of the trails that extend six miles in the Reserva Amazonica Natural Reserve to discover the incredible ecosystem of the Amazon rainforest. The trails offer an excellent introduction to the environment of the jungle as you walk past exotic rainforest flora and fauna.

Tonight, to cap off a fulfilling day, take a boat ride on the Madre de Dios River, where you will witness the enchanting transformation as the rainforest transforms into a thriving nocturnal environment. As you explore, search for nightjars, owls, capybara and caiman, learning about their habits as you share their paradise. On a clear night, the stars of the southern hemisphere seem to stretch on forever against the deep black sky.

Inkaterra Reserva Amazonica lodge is situated on the steep banks of Peru's meandering Madre de Dios River, in a private ecological reserve, deep in the Amazon Basin Rainforest. While staying in this lodge you can be delighted with the lodge's combination of simplicity and luxury. However, one of the best features that you can enjoy is the fresh, carbon neutral air. That's all possible due to the fact that carbon dioxide emissions are completely offset in the lodge's area through reforestation projects. The Inkaterra Reserva Amazonica has 35 lantern-lit, palm-thatched cabanas, designed in a fashion of local Ese' Eja-style huts. Every room includes a comfortable bed swathed in mosquito netting, log chairs, a writing table, lanterns, and a complete set of natural toiletries. Also every cabana has a spacious siesta porch with hammocks, and even though there are no air conditioners, every room has fans, hot water, and limited electricity.

The Tambopata National Reserve adjacent to Inkaterra Reserva Amazonica and is one of the last easily accessible virgin tropical rainforests in the world. The reserve, a 678,774-acre area, offers a wealth of biodiversity, as well as magnificent natural landscapes. A thirty minute journey downriver by motor-canoe brings you to Lake Sandoval the most beautiful and wildlife-rich of all lakes in the Tambopata-Madidi wilderness. Glide in a wooden canoe, across a beautiful, mirror-like oxbow lake that is home to the endangered giant river otter, as well as red howler monkeys, macaws, prehistoric hoatzins, also called "shanshos", anacondas, point-tailed palm creepers and side-neck turtles. Return to the lodge just in time for lunch.

This afternoon, prepare yourself for a very unique experience, the remarkable Inkaterra Canopy Walkway. Ascend the first tower, 95 feet above the ground, and begin "flying" above the forest while stopping at eight different observation platforms. During your journey be on a lookout for giant strangler fig trees, orchids, toucans, woodpeckers, trogons, monkeys, and sloths. Once you finish your walk above the treetops, descend and experience the Anaconda Walk along 656 feet wooden bridge over the Aguajales swamps. In this lush eco system, you may observe the various species of amphibians, birds, mammals, abundant flora, and there is a possibility to see serpents of this flooded marshland. Once you return to your lodge, enjoy the daily nature presentation in the Ecomedia Center.

DAY 10 ~ MONDAY ~ JUNE 5

TAMBOPATA

Get ready for another day packed with more adventures. Start your day by taking a boat to Gamitana Creek and explore the rainforest along the banks of a winding, dark-water creek that is full of life as well as piranhas, caimans, turtles, and a large variety of birds. Arrive to your landing point at Sanipanga, take a canoe and navigate your way downstream, appreciating the abundant flora and fauna along the way. Before returning to the lodge, visit Gamitana Farm to do a short guided tour where you will see and learn how local farmers cultivate their fields.

After lunch visit Hacienda Concepcion Botanical Garden, home to over 200 different species of rainforest plants. An in depth familiarization will be given to you as to what are the processes, uses, and benefits of these traditional indigenous plants, including some of the amazing native medicinal uses. At night enhance your senses in a nocturnal adventure at the Rainforest by night excursion. Get to know the mystery of the animal activity that awakens in the rainforest at this time. Feel the forest pitch-dark sounds and locate those species that only emerge at night. You will be pleasantly surprised at how many more different species you will see during the night that you haven't been able to spot before, even when you were on the boat. THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT PERU

Participants:

- Must be able to climb in and out of minibuses, regular buses, canoes and boats unassisted. People need to be willing to rotate seats.
- Must be able to tolerate nature walks at an easy pace on uneven terrain, sometimes uphill, for three or four hours at a time in heat and humidity.
- Should generally be in good health and prepared to travel in locations without medical facilities. Your trip includes considerable walking/hiking at high altitudes (over 9,000 feet at Machu Picchu and 11,150 feet in Cuzco). These conditions and altitudes may pose problems to participants with particular physical issues and you should always consult your personal physician before embarking on such an adventure.

In general, this trip requires:

- Flexibility and good humor – unexpected changes and/or glitches will occur.
- A spirit of adventure and curiosity.
- Interest in and willingness to appreciate a destination with uneven infrastructure and a bending definition of comfort. That being said, some locations are nestled in absolute luxury where pampering is the norm.

Air Schedules

Choosing the best possible air arrangements for our travelers is always a challenge. We work with many airlines that offer the best level of service, routings and value for our programs. While there may indeed be more direct routings available with another airline, the cost of these flights may not be within our allotted budget that allows us to give you the best value possible. If you prefer to purchase your own international air, please feel free to choose the “land only” rate for this program. The start and end city for this program is Lima, Peru.

Upon registration, you must provide your full legal name as it appears on your passport. In the event an airline ticket is issued with incorrect information you have provided, you will be responsible for charges associated with reissuing the ticket.
